

How to Access Your eBook Library of PHI Learning

Method 1: Use the login ID and password on PHI Learning eLibrary

- 1) Go to URL : <https://elibrary.phindia.com/>

Welcome to your eLibrary of PHI Learning eBooks!

The image shows a login form titled "Please login to access your eLibrary". It contains two input fields: "Username" with the placeholder text "Email" and "Password" with placeholder text represented by asterisks. Below the fields is a "Login" button.

- 2) Fill the Username and Password and then click on Login button to access the account.
- 3) Click on the eBook which you want to read.

Method 2: Single sign-in with link for direct eBook access. For accessing eBooks without having to input login ID and password use the Single Sign-in to Dashboard link provided in the email, if you had requested for it

If you paste this link directly on a browser:

- * If within the IP range, it should open the eBook. No userid is asked.
- * If OUTSIDE IP range, then it would ask for userid, password.
